May 2, 2013

Respected international trend forecaster and life style consultant, Milou Ket has launched her new website, Ket Styling & Design.

Drawing on her 40 years in the field of fashion, design and innovation working with customers such as Samsung, Walt Disney, Ikea, Marimekko, Volvo and Swarovski, the new site is a visual feast with corresponding intelligent analysis for the discerning design devotee.

Be inspired by various categories such as architecture, design, innovation, textiles/surfaces, colours, fashion, interiors, window displays and video's.

"As an international speaker I travel the world and report from my trips and from international trade fairs and design events," says Milou. "It (website) will be a work in progress, with regular new additions on the latest trends."

Some of Milou's products, lectures and presentations will also be available via the new site.

Decoration + Design blog readers can take advantage of a 2-month free trial subscription, visit: milouket.tv

Given Milou's recent schedule that takes her from the Asian Luxury Hospitality Projects in Singapore to Surtex in New York and the Evtexs in Istanbul next month, her website is sure to be brimming with international reports.

We caught up with Milou en route to Milan Design Week to chat career highlights, design trends and the importance/relevance of trends today.
